

Nominations are now open for the 2012 SEOTY competition sponsored by Endsleigh Insurance Ltd!

Whether you're a student looking for a nomination, an employer wanting to recognise an excellent student employee or a job shop wanting to get involved in an awards scheme there are so many benefits to entering SEOTY.

- It's an excellent way to enhance a CV or improve your profile as an employer
- There are categories to recognise both employers and students
- Student nominees are eligible for a cash prize and the chance to be named overall National Student Employee of the Year, an accolade that does amazing things for anyone looking for a great job. Don't take our word for it. Look at our Alumni pages and hear from past national winners.

We've added a few new things to the competition website this year:

- NASES student twitter page: We'll be tweeting for the first time about SEOTY. Follow us for up to the minute information about this and other student facing NASES campaigns. @NASESStudent
- How judging works page: This tells everyone participating in the competition exactly how the competition works from institutional level right up to the selection of a National Student Employee of the Year.
- New category selector flow chart: If you are unsure of which category to choose you can now use our selector to decide. You'll find it on the Nominate now page.
- SEOTY Alumni pages: We've been collecting information about our past winners. They've been letting us know what having a SEOTY has meant for them. Find them on the SEOTY alumni pages.
- Clarified eligibility criteria: We've made it much clearer this year who can be entered for a SEOTY. You'll find a list of eligibility criteria on our Eligibility and small print page.

You have until 5pm, 13 April 2012 to get those nominations in.

Good luck!
